

audio engineer • driving question • floor director • guest • interviewer • Not list • video engineer

1. A _____ is a specific mystery or conflict your episode is trying to explore — narrower than a general topic.
2. A _____ protects your runtime by deliberately excluding related topics.
3. The _____ (host) asks questions and guides the conversation. The _____ is the subject matter expert being interviewed.
4. The _____ manages the set, provides timing cues, and coordinates the crew.
5. The _____ operates the live switcher to change camera angles and graphics.
6. The _____ monitors volume levels and triggers music or sound effects.

Discuss: Your group's "topic" is still just a broad subject after 10 minutes of discussion. What question could you ask yourselves to force it narrower?